

Eveline Branders

Biography

Eveline Branders has been Environmental / Sustainable Development Coordinator for the STIB - Société des Transports Intercommunaux de Bruxelles, the main public transport operator in the Brussels region, since March 2004. Her appointment follows on from STIB's signing of the Charter on Sustainable Development of the UITP (The International Association of Public Transport). Since 2005, she is also a member of the UITP Sustainable Development Commission. Eveline has degrees in environmental management and eco-consulting, amongst others, and prior to her time with the STIB worked for the Brussels Regional Environment Ministry.
