

Speaker Bio

Susan Dolan, RN, MS, CIC

Susan received her undergraduate nursing degree from the State University of New York. She received her Master's in Pediatric Nursing from the University in Rochester, New York where she also worked in pediatrics at Strong Memorial Hospital. She has been employed at Children's Hospital Colorado for 25 years and for the last 18 years has been the Hospital Epidemiologist working in the Infection Prevention and Control Program.

Susan is certified in Infection Control and has been active in the national as well as Mile High Chapter of the Association of Professionals in Infection Control. She was chair of the national APIC Public Policy committee and currently is on the Regulatory Review Panel

She was awarded Infection Control Educator of the Year in 2001 by Infection Control Today Magazine and was the national APIC Hero of Infection Prevention in 2006. In 2012, Susan received the APIC President's Distinguished Service Award and Colorado's Nightingale Luminary Award.

Susan has published numerous articles in the area of Infection Control. Her areas of clinical interest include infection control issues pertaining to vascular access devices, endoscope reprocessing, pediatric infection control, legislative advocacy and outbreak investigation.