

Speaker Bio

Virginia Kennedy, RN, MS, CIC

Principal, Infection Prevention & Management Associates, Inc.

Utilizing her nursing and public health training, Ms. Kennedy began her infection prevention career in 1979. Since then, she has practiced infection prevention in multiple entities in North Carolina, Washington, California and Texas and has provided consultations throughout the country. Ms. Kennedy has been certified in infection control since 1983. She has published and presented posters on various infection prevention topics. Ms Kennedy left traditional hospital employment to start Infection Prevention & Management Associates in 1996.