

Speaker Bio

Mishga Moinuddin, MPH,CIC

Ms. Moinuddin has practiced infection prevention for over 9 years. She attended the University of Texas where she obtained a Bachelor of Science in Microbiology and a Master of Public Health. Mishga is a Microbiologist by training and is experienced in both diagnostic and clinical microbiology and virology. Mishga Moinuddin's repertoire of facilities includes acute care, trauma level 1 & 2 teaching hospitals, including adult and neonatal intensive care, long term acute care, rehabilitation, psychiatric, and heart specialty centers.

Mishga is active in APIC and has previously held local chapter office. She is a former recipient of APIC DFW's STAR Award for outstanding achievement in Infection Control. Mishga also has been an APIC reviewer of education materials for distribution. In addition, Mishga has presented several oral and poster presentations at APIC and SHEA conferences. Mishga Moinuddin has considerable experience in facility program assessment and management, policy development, and JCAHO survey preparation.