

Speaker Bio

Barbara Smith, RN, BSN, MPA. CIC
Nurse Epidemiologist
Mt. Sinai Health System

Barbara A. Smith, RN is a Nurse Epidemiologist at the Mount Sinai Health Systems- St. Luke's and Roosevelt Hospitals. She has participated in multiple local and New York State collaboratives to reduce HAIs.

She served on the MRSA Advisory Board for IPRO and serves on the Infection Prevention Steering Committee of Greater New York Hospital Association. She is an active participant in the Infection Prevention Coaches Training Program. She is on the Advisory Board of Medical Reserve Corps of New York City and the American Council for St. Luke's International Hospital in Tokyo.

She serves on the APIC communication committee and is the membership chair of APIC chapter 13.

Ms. Smith received her Bachelor's of Science in Nursing from Hunter College and a Master's of Public Administration from New York University. She is certified in Infection Prevention.